REPORT FROM MR. RANDALL Christmas Adventures Were Entirely too Realistic.

More thelling than the ordinary lovel was the stort received at headquarters yested by of the adventures of Deputy Revenue Agent, Charles M. Randall, who, more than a month ago was charged with the task of wip-Leslie and Breathitt counties. The raid, the most important since last tall, was entineatly successful, but the desired results were obtained only after disagreeable experiences.

Deputy Randell was given his orders by Revenue Agest L A. Thrasher before the latter was transferred to Richmon. ? Va., and, consequently, the report was made to the latter, who immediately forwarded it to his local successor, Co!. C. H. Ingram. He opened his mail yesterday morn ing and came upon some most interesting reading.

Capt. Thrasher issued orders Deember to for the raid. He had reeived information that illicit distilling was in progress in Perry, Leslie, Breathitt and Clay counties, and he instructed Agent Randall to search thoroughly, destroying every still and arresting every offender.

Mr. Randall, with two deputies, entered Lealie county on the night of December 19. and rode thirty-three miles, through cold and urud and snow, to a cable wear Hyden. The little party sat dewn for supper, and appeared with a jug of moonskins, Mr. Raudutt staged leim a $10 bill, and the bout was sufficient.
